Professional Wealth Management magazine, a publication from the Financial Times issued a new report categorising different countries offering citizenship by investment programmes. The 2020 CBI Index by Financial Times' Professional Wealth Management magazine has ranked St Kitts and Nevis CBIP as the number one fastest in the world, while it also received several other trophies in other categories concerning crucial aspects of the programme.

The victory of citizenship by investment programme comes with enormous efforts of the Prime Minister Dr Timothy Harris, who managed to take the CBIP on greater heights in recent years.

The Financial Times awarded citizenship by investment programme of St Kitts and Nevis top scores in the categories such as mandatory travel or residence, citizenship timeline, ease of processing, due diligence and certainty of the product.

The report stated that St Kitts and Nevis continues to be the fastest citizenship timeline, implementing one of the most particular and family-appealing CBI programmes, especially in light of its new limited-time offer.

As per the Prime Minister of St Kitts and Nevis, Dr Timothy Harris, the country is not only a place for investors to thrive in, but it is also very warm home to families. He added that the government has made the streets immensely safer, and the rule of law is now much more substantial.

Furthermore, the leader added that the government is highly investing in education and healthcare to provide the best amenities to the people. As per the Prime Minister, the economy is resilient even when faced with external shocks like a global pandemic.

The CEO of St Kitts and Nevis Citizenship by Investment Unit Les Khan added that the unit keeps its focus on the requirements of the investors to ensure that the platinum standard of the brand is maintained.

He added that the new temporarily offer to allow investors to add up to three members of their family for the same amount of contribution as for a single applicant.

The continues efforts of Prime Minister Timothy Harris made CBIP of St Kitts and Nevis achieve this tremendous success of getting ranked as best CBIP in the world. Les Khan, CEO of Citizenship by Investment Unit, St Kitts and Nevis stated in his recent interview that the Sustainable Growth Fund mainly referred to as the fund option is the fastest route to the second citizenship and it is also world's finest.

The current offer price for a family of four under the Sustainable Growth Fund options is only at USD 150,000; however, previously the amount was USD 195,000. The discount of USD 45,000 is for a limited period and the offer is valid till 15th of January,2021.

The applications are processed fastly under the Accelerated Application Processing and St Kitts and Nevis is also world's only country to offer AAP to its investors where applications are processed in just 60 days.
